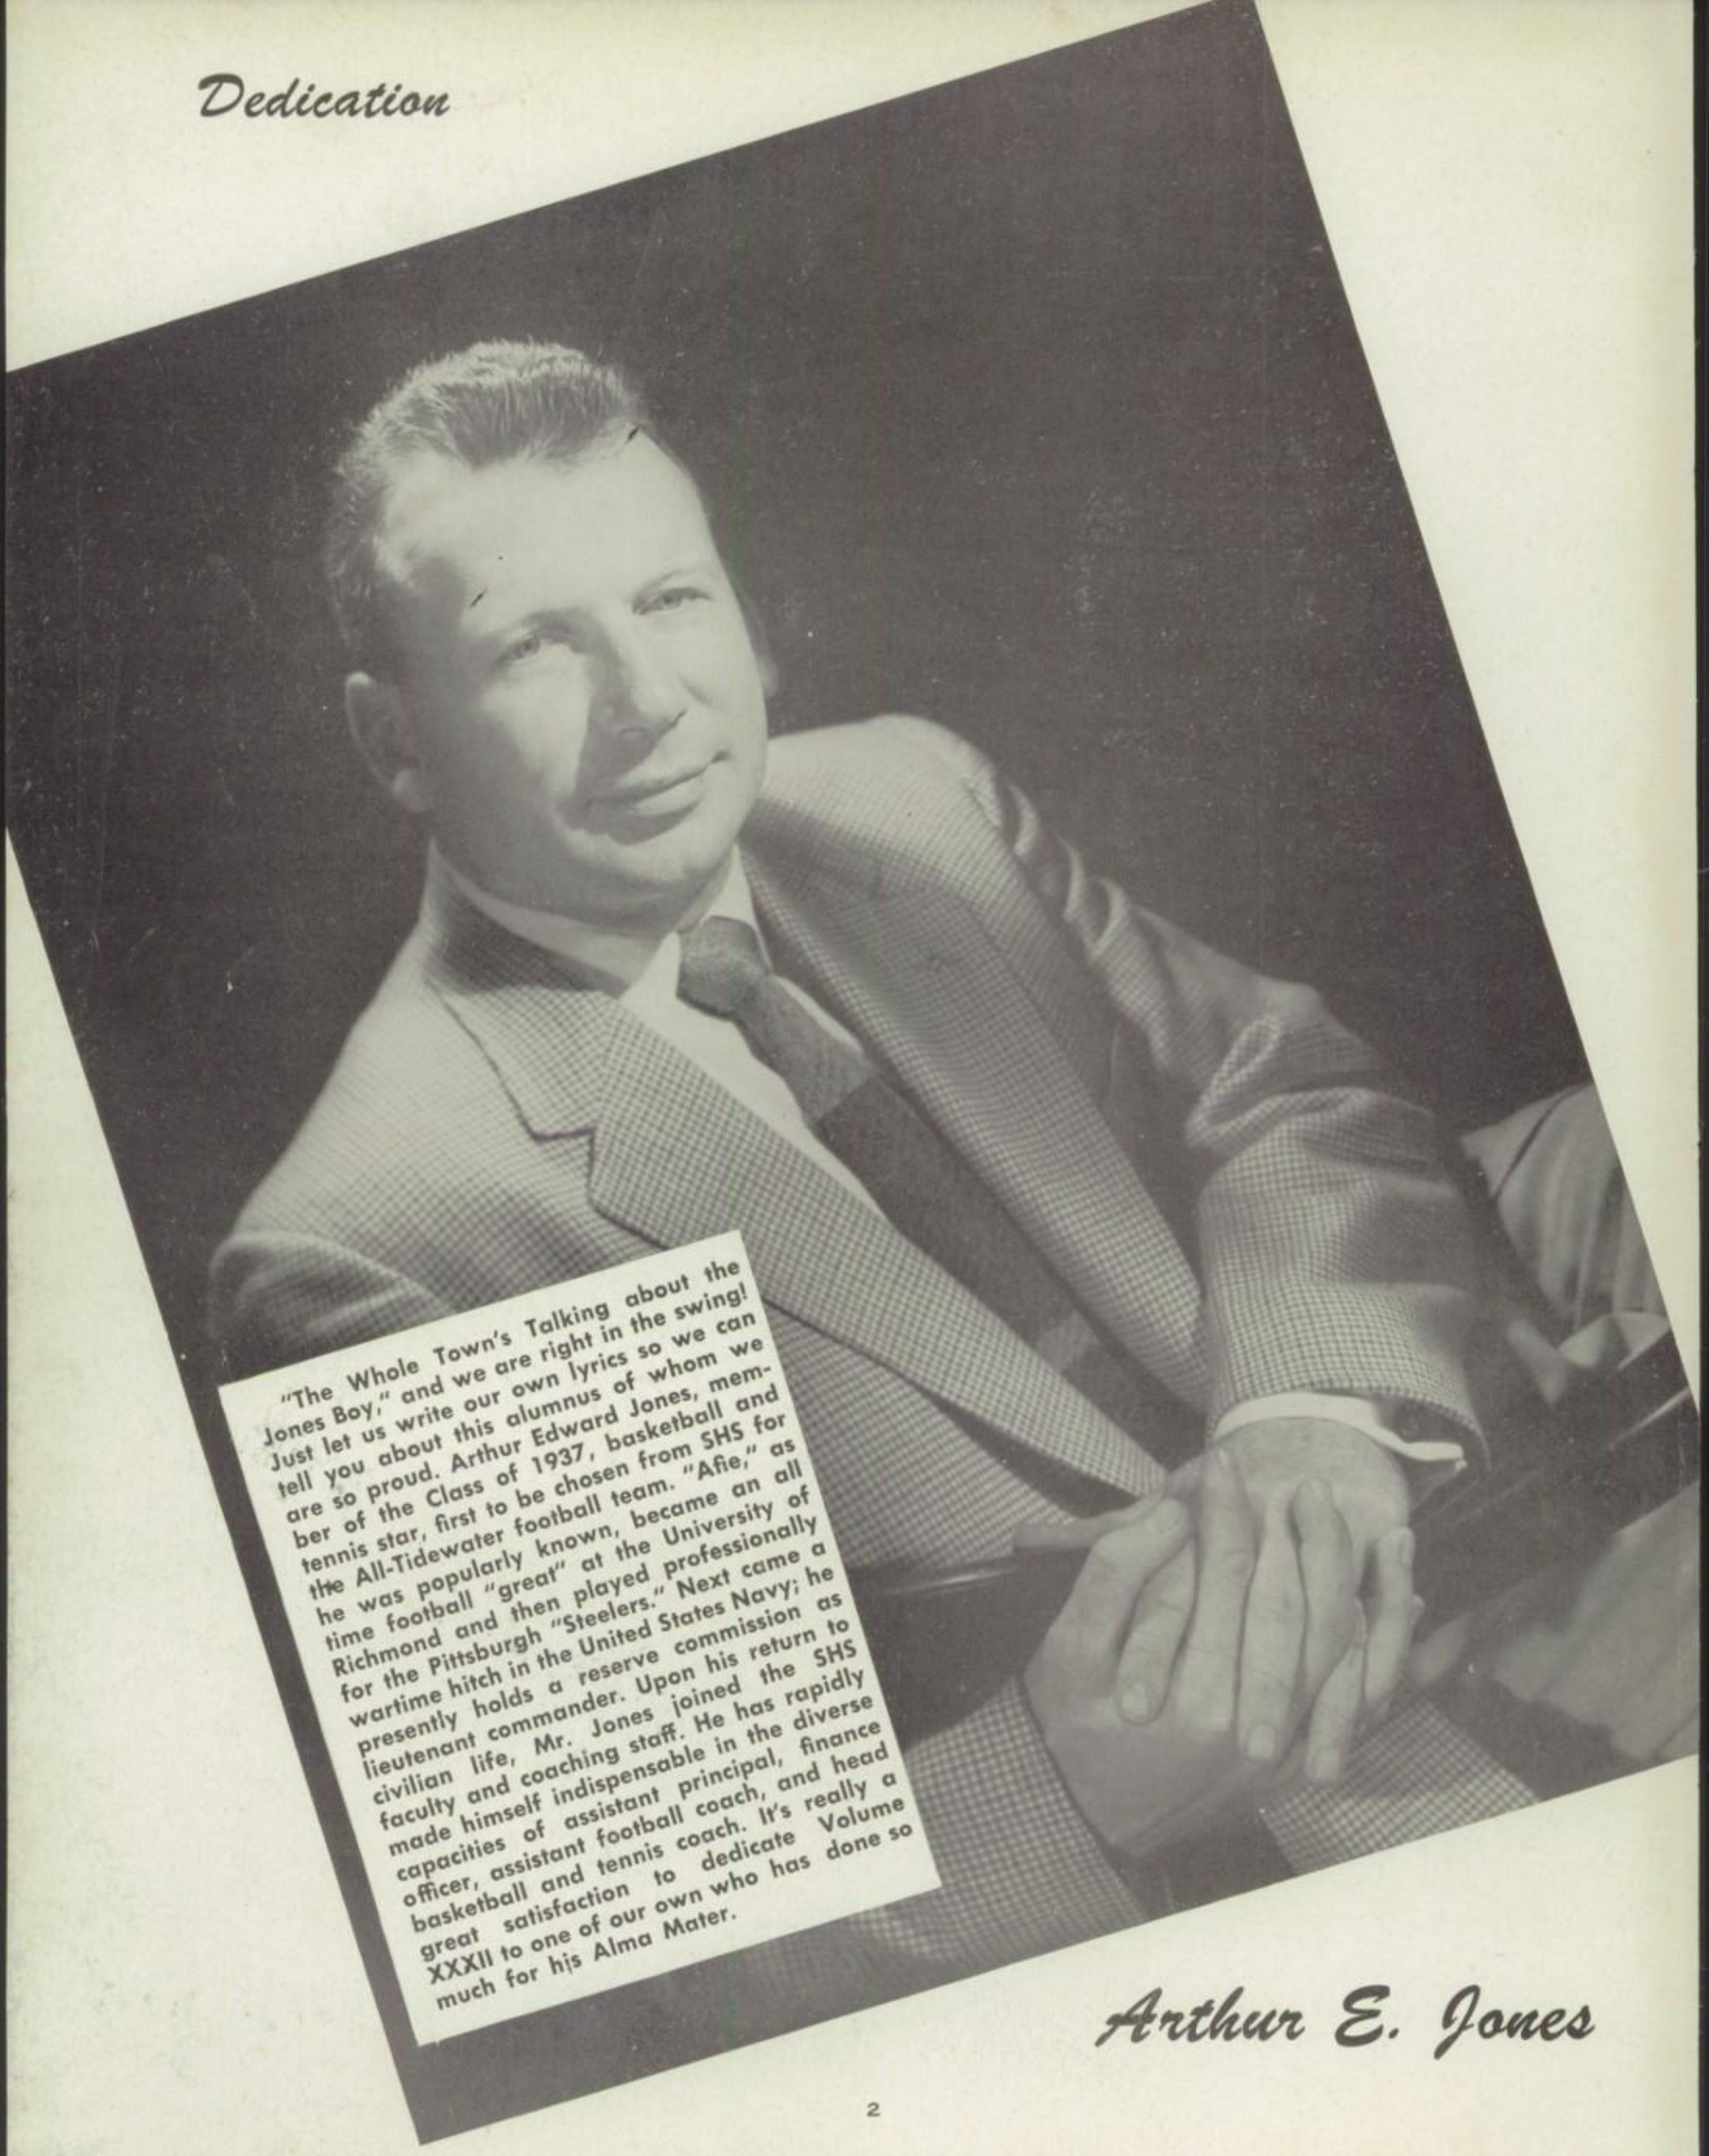
Dedication



"The Whole Town's Talking about the Jones Boy," and we are right in the swing! Just let us write our own lyrics so we can tell you about this alumnus of whom we are so proud. Arthur Edward Jones, member of the Class of 1937, basketball and tennis star, first to be chosen from SHS for the All-Tidewater football team. "Afie," as he was popularly known, became an all time football "great" at the University of Richmond and then played professionally for the Pittsburgh "Steelers." Next came a wartime hitch in the United States Navy; he presently holds a reserve commission as lieutenant commander. Upon his return to civilian life, Mr. Jones joined the SHS faculty and coaching staff. He has rapidly made himself indispensable in the diverse capacities of assistant principal, finance officer, assistant football coach, and head basketball and tennis coach. It's really a great satisfaction to dedicate Volume XXXII to one of our own who has done so much for his Alma Mater.

Arthur E. Jones

Foreword

Our purpose in the publication of this book is to picture not so much the year 1953-54 as to record the events of a typical year at Suffolk High School. While the staff has taken some liberties with dates and the sequence of events, it is our hope that the reader will find our presentation suitable and complete. If this volume serves as a reminder of four of the best years of your life, then we have accomplished our purpose, a tribute to our Alma Mater.

United Nations Model Assembly

In celebration of United Nations Week the Government class staged a model assembly in which each member nation was represented by a student delegate. Harriet "Mme. Pandit" January presided and Jimmy "Vishinsky" Norfleet's address was a highlight. Dr. Joseph L. Sisco of the United Nations Staff was the main speaker. Dr. Murray Kantor and Miss Gladys Yates were in charge of the program.

Raiders Win Group 2 Championship

For the first time since 1948 the Suffolk Red Raiders were eligible for the Group II Championship. In previous years, it has been said that Suffolk High School did not schedule enough Group II teams to try for the trophy but this year we met three conference teams and were voted back in the running.

Playing ten games, the Raiders terminated their season with a .500 average. The loss of 8 lettermen and injuries to Jimmy Annas, Terry Rountree, Clarence Hurt, Austin Darden, Billy Earl Russell, and Bobby Turner which kept them out of one or more games, conspired to give us a somewhat mediocre season in Red Raider history in spite of our Group II Championship.

Christmas at S.H.S. becomes an established fact on the Sunday before school closes. On this occasion the members of the Gladys Yates Tri-Hi-Y literally "deck the halls" with pine, holly, and fragrant cedar garlands. For nearly a decade now this has been their warmly anticipated holiday contribution.

In addition to their customary school and civic duties the club fixed boxes of home made candy for the patients at Patrick Henry Hospital.

Traditional Holiday Preparations

The Civic Samaritan Tri-Hi-Y proudly exhibits its collection of Christmas stockings filled for distribution to a dozen and a half children in the community whose parents were unable to supply these very necessary remembrances. These girls also devoted several of their holiday hours to manning a booth in the local post office where the Christmas Seals of the Tuberculosis Association were on sale. Mrs. G. Warren Taylor is the sponsor.

Art

Miss Ann Hines

The art program in Suffolk schools is being expanded this year with the advent of our first art coordinator. Miss Ann Hines, holder of an A.B. degree from the college of William and Mary, works with classroom teachers throughout the city system in the planning and execution of the artistic projects which supplement the regular curriculum.

In the High School, Miss Hines meets two classes daily. The first period class has worked with pencil, charcoal, pastels, water color, pen and ink, and done string painting. In the picture below the second period class in Art Appreciation is engaged in the construction of model houses made of balsa.

Won 9—Lost 1

The Suffolk Red Raider Tennis Team finished the season with one of the best records in several years. Two men on the Raider team had unblemished records; Turner and Brett were the two undefeated netters. In District Competition this year, the Raiders once again walked off with both singles and doubles honors in the District 1 Group 2 tournament. Mitchell took the singles championship; then he and Turner combined and breezed through the doubles.
